THE MARKET IRREGULAR.

Stocks Quiet at the Opening of To NEW YORK, July 14.-The Stock Market

pened quiet, with irregular price changes resulting from the dealings.

The London market, notwithstanding the eports from China, was only slightly lower, with consols showing a loss of 3-8 point. The dealings here for foreign account we'e on an unimportant scale. Aside from the news from China, there was virtually nothing in the morning's developments with any bearings upon the market.

The weekly reports of the mercantile agencies were, however, more encouraging than they have been of late.

Active features of the dealings were Sugar Refining, Atchison, preferred, Missouri Pacific, Union Pacific, Burington and Quincy, and St. Paul. The latter stock was notably firm. Brooklyn Rapid Transit was fairly active, and was heavy. The other local traction issues were neglected.

CONVICTS POORLY FED.

Epidemic of Disease in the Mary-JESSUPS, Md., July 14 .- Dr. C. P. Carico, the newly appointed physicians to the Maryland House of Correction, has discovered toat scurvy is prevalent among the mates of the institution The discovery has been reported to Supt. J. Jesse Moore, who in turn notified the board of directors of the institution and State Treasurer Murray Vandiver. Directors Stearns and Haines have been appointed a special committee to investigate the causes of the prevalence of this disease

Dr. Carrico, in making his statement said that out of 375 patients now in the institution there are more than fifty suffering with the scurvy. The presence of the disease is due to the lack of proper vegetable diet. The disease affects the risoners in the mouth. In many instances those afflicted have lost the teeth from spongy gums. In other cases those afflicted suffer with contraction of the muscles. The majority of those affected are barely able to stand on their legs.

A correspondent visited the institution yesterday, and saw several of the prisoners. Herry Sunstrom of Baltimore eity.

He said: "I have been in the institution for some time, and before this attack I have always enjoyed excellent health. I stribute my present condition to the fact that we are poorly fed. The meals, which generally consist of meat and soup, are not sufficient for men to live on. The soup is nothing more than water with a few beans in it. Since I have been in the institution I do not remember seeing as much as one I do not remember seeing as much as one otato in the portion of soup served to me

He stated that since the present superior charge of the preparation of meals for the convicts, when asked what was the menu

But, on examination, he stated that the soup, which was usually served to from 375 to 400 prisoners, was made of about 200 gallons of water and three bushels of beans. He stated that no potatoes were used in making soup. Since Mr. Moore had taken charge be had been directed to use four bushels of poiatoes and a bushel and a quarter of boans in nes and a bushel and a quarter of beans in found the prisoners were suffering out the lack of proper nourishment, and after making careful investigation, had decided that the compleints made by the prisoners were not without foundation. He added: "I immediately informed the Board of Directors that the men would have to have more vegetables to eat, and, as there are none on the farm, I insisted that sufficient quantities should be purchased. The board lirected me to provide what was necessary for the health of the convicts, and I shall endeavor to give them sufficient good, as it endeavor to give them summerent 100d, as it is impossible to expect them to work when they have not sufficient strength to do the task which is expected of them. I am surprised to find the inmates in such a condition. They could have been kept healthy and free from this disease by a more liband free from this disease by a more no-eral supply of vegetables, and while the old board may have considered it economy to curtain the expenses of feeding the pris-oners, I feel that it is money well spent in taking care of their health."
